

QUESTIONNAIRE

Section A. Demographic information

Instruction: Please tick [✓] or fill in the gap in the appropriate box or space provided.

1. Name of School.....
2. Residence type: Boarding [ ] Day [ ]
3. Indicate your sex: Male [ ] Female [ ]
4. Age.....
5. Class grade: Low [ ] High [ ]

Instruction: Please indicate your opinion by ticking [✓] the appropriate columns and rows as given below:

Key

SA = Strongly agree 4

A = Agree 3

D = Disagree 2

SD = Strongly disagree 1

Serial number	Question	SA	A	D	SD
Section B: Source of information about HIV/AIDS
1	Newspaper or magazines are your source of information about HIV/AIDS
2	The hospital is your source of information about HIV/AIDS
3	Television is your source of information about HIV/AIDS
4	Radio is your source of information about HIV/AIDS
5	Teachers are your source of information about HIV/AIDS
6	Friends are your source of information about HIV/AIDS
7	Your relations are your source of information about HIV/AIDS
Section C: HIV/AIDS transmission knowledge
1	HIV/AIDS is transmissible
2	A healthy looking person can have and transmit HIV
3	One can become infected with HIV by having unsafe sex with an HIV person
4	One can become infected with HIV by receiving blood from an HIV person
5	HIV can be transmitted by sharing needle and other sharp objects like razor blade with an HIV person
6	HIV mothers can transmit HIV to their babies
7	HIV can be transmitted to babies through breastfeeding
8	Someone can become infected with HIV by sharing public toilet and swimming pool with HIV people
9	Someone can become infected with HIV by sharing belongings such as comb, towel, bed with an HIV person
10	HIV can be transmitted by touching HIV person such as shaking hands.
11	Transmission of HIV could be through sharing food utensils such as plates, spoons, and cups.
Section D: HIV/AIDS prevention knowledge
1	Abstinence from sex is one of the ways of preventing the transmission of HIV from one person to another
2	Having only one sexual partner and been faithful to that sexual partner helps in preventing the transmission of HIV
3	Using condom during sexual intercourse helps in the prevention of contracting HIV
4	Avoiding the sharing of needles, razor blades, clipper, and other sharps helps in preventing HIV transmission
5	Regular washing of hands can help prevent the transmission of HIV
6	Reducing unnecessary blood transfusion helps in preventing transmission of HIV
7	There is a vaccine for the prevention of HIV/AIDS
8	There are drugs that cure HIV/AIDS
Section E: Attitude toward people living with HIV/AIDS
1	People with HIV/AIDS can live in the same community with other people not having HIV/AIDS
2	AIDS people have social right for studying or learning
3	HIV/AIDS people need our help and support
4	We should not feel sorry for HIV/AIDS people
5	We should discriminate against people living with HIV
Section F: Behavioral practices
1	I have more than one sexual partner at the same time
2	I abstain from sex
3	I stick to only one faithful partner
4	I use condom every time I have sex
5	I can never be infected with HIV
6	I share unsterilized instruments in barbing and hair dressing saloons with other people

HIV: Human immunodeficiency virus, AIDS: Acquired immune deficiency syndrome